Attention, Democrats.

Pursuant to the sense of a meeting of Democratic citizens held at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday evening, November 11, the Democratic voters of the Town of Roswell are requested to meet in mass convention in each of the Wards of said Town on Tuesday, November 17th, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of nominating one candidate for Alderman, two candidates for members of the Board of Education, and five delegates to a city convention to be held Saturday, November 21, at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Mayor, a candidate for City Treasurer and a candidate for City Clerk or Recorder, and also for the selection of one resident of each ward as a member of the City Democratic Central Committee.

Meetings to be held at the following places:

First Ward—Roswell RECORD office.

Second Ward—E. B. Stone's store.

Third Ward—Central School Building.

Fourth Ward—Pauly Addition School Building.

Fifth Ward—Whiteman Brothers store.

City Convention—Court House.

Every Democratic resident of Roswell is requested to attend.

E. H. SKIPWITH, Chairman.
LUCIUS DILLS, Secretary.

The Citizens' convention meets to-night.

Democrats attend your caucus to-morrow night.

All Democrats are expected to attend the caucuses to-morrow night.

Remember the hour and place of your Democratic caucus to-morrow night.

It is important that Democrats should attend their caucus to-morrow night.

Many Democrats believe that there are just as able men in the Democratic party as can be found in Roswell.

All Republicans, and all Democrats who do not believe in a Democratic ticket in the present municipal election are expected to attend the Citizens' convention to-night.

There need be no ill feeling engendered by the present campaign. The Republicans are all of one mind. They will not quarrel. With Democrats there is a mere difference of opinion as to the advisability of a ticket.

The Municipal Situation.

To-night according to a call published Saturday and to-day in the columns of THE RECORD a Citizens' Convention will meet at the opera house to nominate a city ticket. This convention will be composed of Republicans, and those Democrats who are opposed at this time to a Democratic ticket in the municipal field.

To-morrow the Democratic caucuses will meet at the time and places given in the call at the head of this column. In these caucuses only Democrats will take part.

Candidates for alderman and members of the school board will be selected at these caucuses, and delegates to the Democratic convention which meets at the court house Saturday evening to nominate the officers at large, and a Democratic Central Committee.

It is for each Democrat to decide what course he will take under these circumstances. There is only one course for the Republicans, which is to attend and make their influence felt in the Citizens' convention which meets to-night.

There need be no personal feelings or animosities engendered in this campaign. The Republicans are of course unanimously for a Citizen's Convention, and some Democrats favor a non-partisan campaign as the signatures to the call for the Citizens' convention indicate.

Doubtless the convention that meets to-night will put out a ticket composed of our best citizens. The Democratic caucus to-morrow night and the Democratic convention Saturday night will also put out a most excellent ticket. There will be only one difference, the one ticket will be Democratic, and the other ticket will not.

THE RECORD stands for the Democratic ticket, and it believes that a large majority of the Democrats feel the same. The arguments that can be used again at a Democratic ticket in the city, can be used against a Democratic ticket in the county. The offices of both county and town are local offices. The Democrat who does not believe in a local municipal ticket, on account of the fact that the offices are local and have no national bearing, must by the same process of reasoning oppose a Democratic county ticket.

THE RECORD stands for a Democratic ticket in every precinct at every election.

Washington Correspondence.

Special To The Record.

The election is over and the Democracy has much to congratulate itself for.

This is a time for Democratic jubilation and elation. In every state where the Democrats made the attempt they either defeated the Republicans or cut down the majority in such a manner as to give encouragement to every Democrat in the land. Only in the single state of Ohio were we defeated worse than we expected to be. No Democrat in the country expected Tom L. Johnson to be elected governor. He did not expect himself. He was fighting for the legislature to defeat Mark Hanna for the United States Senate. He made a gallant fight and with right principles. He preached the gospel of humanity to the people of his state, the gospel of the people's rights as against the rights of the corporation, and it is a gospel that must in the end prevail or the people not alone of his state but of the entire nation will have sacrificed their birthright on the altar of corporate greed. His defeat and the defeat of the ticket and the principles he represented must be attributed to the defection in the ranks of the Democratic party in Ohio and to the lavish use of money at the polls and before the election. Some day these people in the state of Ohio will see and know the truth and it will be a Democratic state. In the meantime the only thing those patriots in Ohio can do is to pick their flints and keep their powder dry. There will be another battle next year and the indications from the battle of the 3rd of this month presage a glorious victory.

It is the consensus of Democratic opinion here among the clans of gathering Democrats who come to the assembling of the Fifty-eighth congress, that the Democrats have much in the election at which to rejoice. We more than held our own in the state of Massachusetts, we kept our own in the little state of Rhode Island by re-electing our governor; we carried the state of Maryland not United States senator; we carried Kentucky by an increased majority which eternally puts the kibosh on Republican assassinations in that state; we reduced the majority in the rock-ribbed Republican state of Iowa by at least 20,000, and we made a clean sweep of the great city of New York. The latter was a great victory for more than one reason. It was a victory for the great common people, for home rule, for Democratic methods, and a defeat for hypocrisy, false pretense, the rule of the corporation and the aristocrat, a cold bath for the bootlicks and sycophants who whine about the knees of predatory wealth.

To witness an election in the greatest city in the nation, and especially when the people have won a great victory, is a sight never to be forgotten and a privilege. I was in New York and saw the thing. It far surpasses anything in the line of election excitement that I ever saw or ever expect to see. Imagine 150,000 people packed in the space covered by twenty acres, all gazing intently at the bulletin board, and when the news comes they have been hoping for and waiting for, there is an explosion and pandemonium breaks loose and reigns supreme from that time on until tired nature refuses longer to submit. A sea of humanity, and every man either yelling or blowing a fish horn, which is an invention of the devil, is a veritable Niagara of noise. That crowd was a volatile vortex and a vocal volcano. The people forming the crowd had been to the ballot box earlier in the day, and they were rejoicing over the work they had accomplished. They had a good right to howl. They had that day stamped their feet on the necks of the rankest gang of rotten Republicans posing as reformers who ever worked the "con" game on the honest people of any city in the country. Those people have themselves and their own ballots to thank for this escape from the grasp of cowards cringing to coin, but they have some agencies to thank for making them "wise" to the situation. It is the universal opinion in New York and in political circles here that had it not been for the papers controlled by that good Democrat and people's friend, Mr. William Randolph Hearst the people would never have taken the interest in this election that they did, and a great Democratic city would have still been under the control of Tom Platt and his Republican co-laborers and co-partners in political crime. It is a noteworthy fact that every paper in the city of Greater New York, with the exception of the New York American, Evening Journal and Das Morgen Journal, owned and controlled by Mr. Hearst, were booming the so-called fusion ticket made up of rank Republicans and mugwump Democrats. They stormed and fought and lied vigorously from start to finish, but it seems that those newspapers owned by Mr. Hearst have more actual readers than all the others combined, for when they throw their votes for any candidate he wins. Six years ago Mr. Hearst's papers supported Van Wyck for mayor of New York and he won. Two years ago the same papers fought Van Wyck for good cause and he was defeated. Thus, the people have come to the conclusion that the Hearst papers have some influence in the city of Greater New York, and they are right. The reason for this is not far to seek. Those papers are always on the side of the people and they are always sincere.

Attention City Voters, Keep Eyes Open.

I decline a nomination for alderman as offered to me, but will accept a nomination and election as city mayor. My platform is: invariable good, sound, and honest government, with a view of helping the city along in any way possible. The same time keep Taxes low, and allow nobody to boodle. The same time am not dying for office, nor out of work, nor broke up.

Respectfully,
Nov. 16 2t GEO. T. BLASHEK.
